

IB Diploma Programme Newsletter

October 2019 - IB Senior Newsletter Volume 1

In this issue:

- IB Exam Registration
- IB and University
- EE What's next?
- CAS Star
- IB Looking Ahead

IB Exam Registration:

IB exam registration is live! Forms and payment are due to Mrs. Stockfisch by Friday, October 25th. Checks made payable to BMHS.

IB 2020 Exam Schedule

IB and University:

Did you know that the IB has a whole website dedicated to University admission?

EE What's next?

Students should be meeting with their supervisor and completing a draft feedback meeting by Friday, October 4th. The due date for the completed extended essay is Friday, November 8th.

IB Looking Ahead:

IB and Supporting College Visits—October 10th and 11th

Math HL IA Deadline—Friday, October 25th

Extended Essay Deadline—November 8th

CAS Star: Natalie Ochoa

Natalie's efforts outside of the classroom are extraordinary! She works with CYL, choir through her church, campaigning for different political candidates and advocating for change on the climate policy.

"I love CAS because it challenges me to be active not only physically, but in my community. I can take what I do and reflect on it so I can make sure I have met my goals and know what I can do to improve. One of the best CAS experiences that I had was the CT History Day Competition where I got to showcase the passage of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 on an exhibit. I am especially proud of the club that I started with other IB students called McMahon Democrats, where students have many opportunities to get involved in local, state, and nationwide politics and civic activism."

Questions:

IB Diploma Programme Coordinator

Nicole Stockisch

stockfischn@norwalkps.org

Follow us on Twitter @IbBrien

Instagram: brienmcmahonibdp